PRAYER † PARTICIPATION † GENEROSITY

God's Love and Grace reflected and active in us.

Prayer is best in a quiet space, detached from everyday life. It is there that true peace enters and a grateful and generous heart is born.

Visit our huge annual Flea Market!

816 Allen, 63104 (8th & Allen, Soulard)

Our parish hall is chocked full! Deals, steals and treasures are waiting for you! Decor, housewares, glassware, China sets, furniture, appliances, sewing machines, linens, Christmas, holidays, sporting goods, electronics, lighting, books, vinyl, CDs, movies. From vintage items to barely used . . . you name it!

Support Sts. Peter and Paul Parish in historic Soulard in our ministry to the poor and homeless in our neighborhood.

THE PRESENCE OF GOD

In all our thoughts and actions we ought to remember the presence of God, and account all lost in which we think not of God.

—St. Bernard of Clairvaux

STEWARDSHIP AWARENESS SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 26TH & 27TH

Brenda, thank you for accepting the call to share your personal and inspirational stewardship journey with your peers. Your story was very candid, heartfelt and honest. I hope that your story will inspire all of us to trust God more fully in everything.

Today, let us recommit ourselves to prayer, participation, trust and generosity in living our daily lives as a good steward of God's gifts to us. If you have forgotten your commitment form or misplaced it, there are extra copies at the information center. Please be sure to complete the generosity portion of the form as well. We understand that it is only an expression of your intention to give back to God a faithful and generous share of the gifts God has entrusted to your care. Thank you for being a fully committed member of this parish.

Let us together recite the Stewardship prayer.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

The Lord promised St. Gertrude that 1,000 souls would be released from Purgatory each time the Prayer is said sincerely.

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen.
—St. Gertrude

4th ANNUAL SHOE COLLECTION FOR "SHOEMAN WATER PROJECTS"

It's that time of year again to check the closet and round up the shoes you have not worn in a while!! This year's shoe collection will begin Sunday, October 4th through Sunday, October 25th. Any style or type of shoe is welcome.....just no holes in the bottom. Collection boxes will be available at the information center in church beginning Oct. 4th.

Please tie or rubber band pairs together. The project benefits the "Shoeman Water Projects" which raises funds from the sale of new and used shoes to bring water to people in Kenya, Haiti and South America. For more information visit info@shoemanwater.org. Please contact Jan Meyer or Gerry Berviller with any questions.

LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR
SEPTEMBER 26 & 27, 2015

Today we welcome The Little Sisters of the Poor who have come to speak with us of their mission within the Church, and to ask our help. Their Home, in North St. Louis, currently serves 115 needy elderly persons who are loved and cared for until death, so that they live in security and dignity.

The heart of their mission is simply to provide a "Home", so that those elderly, with whom the sisters joyfully share their lives, realize how much God loves them and wants them to be with Him forever in heaven. Throughout their history, the Little Sisters have depended on the collaboration of the laity to enable them to support their Residents and live their vocation. The Sisters will have envelopes in the pews and will briefly speak at Mass to ask your support. Please make checks payable to the Little Sisters of the Poor.

LIVING GOD'S WORD

It is the Lord Jesus who is God's radical commitment to creation and to the human race. In him the human has become divine and the divine has become human. In spite of our own sinfulness all is becoming one. In Jesus the journey has begun.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

At first glance, the situation of the penitents in the early church is shocking: isolated and labeled, their journey back to fellowship at the Lord's Table seems arduous and even cruel. However, at no time in the process were the penitents lacking the support of the community. Penances were performed for all to see, and we can tell from the homilies of the day that people earnestly desired to see the sinner benefit from the remedy. Tertullian reminded the penitents that they were living among their brothers and sisters, fellow servants of the same Lord, still in the embrace of the Spirit. He tells them that when they extend their hands in blessing to the faithful, it is Christ they touch. He tells them that when they see tears in the eyes of believers, it is Christ who is interceding for them with the Father.

There is a treasure of our tradition woven into this history: these people knew profoundly that the prayer of Christ's body, the church, was the prayer of Christ himself. Prayer was not merely support for a person down on his or her luck; it was effective and necessary. The treasure we can see even through the tangles of history is this: the Spirit of God is poured out on the church, and brings grace, forgives sin, makes us holy, and always calls us to fullness of life.

MISSOURI CATHOLIC CONFERENCE NEWS

Don't be fooled, Mizzou is still in the abortion business. You may have read or heard media reports indicating that the University of Missouri has severed all its ties with Planned Parenthood. This is only partially correct. It is true MU has cancelled several contracts with Planned Parenthood; however, the most important link has NOT been severed. Abortion doctor Colleen McNicholas still has hospital privileges with the University of Missouri hospital. Because MU has granted these privileges, McNicholas can legally perform abortions at Columbia Planned Parenthood. The University of Missouri needs to get completely out of the abortion business. Visit www.mocatholic.org to take action now.

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE!

Dynamic Catholic, Alive! – Conscience

Conscience, in the heart of every person, guiding us to do good and avoid evil. Because of the importance of conscience, we must ensure that it is well-formed and not darkened by sin. Sacraments, Scripture, prayer, examination of conscience, and study can form our consciences. Are you hearing the voice of God in your life? "For man has in his heart a law inscribed by God."

INTERCESSIONS FOR LIFE

For our president and political leaders: that they may use their influence to protect religious freedom and those who are most vulnerable in our country;

We pray to the Lord:

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

"While a lone man may be overcome, two together can resist. A three-ply cord is not easily broken." (Eccles. 4:12) Bond yourself together as husband and wife. With bringing God into your relationship, you create a three ply cord, giving you the strength that is not easily broken.

PARENTING POINTERS

Sept. 29 is "Eat Dinner Together Day." Maybe you do this most of the time anyway. Congratulations. If not, take heed. The Natl. Center on Addiction and Substance Abuse says that one habit of healthy families is that they "eat dinner together most every night."

Oct. 2: "Let the children come to me...Then [Jesus] embraced them and blessed them." (Mark 10:14,16) Sometimes we just want our children to go to sleep; but in our better moments, take the time to hug them. Bless them daily. It can be part of the hug or a bed time prayer.

STEWARDSHIP

"Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward." (MARK 9:41)

Does your life reflect the life of Jesus? Remember, we were made in His image. We tend to forget this. When others see you, do they see the face of Jesus? When you look at others, do you see the face of Jesus in them?

Remembering that we will be judged by what we do for the least among us, may we give generously and joyfully to support all those in need.

OUR PRODIGAL GOD

We have to relearn how prodigal God is. It is as if God cannot quite manage to say no. We think it is surely fine when God is prodigal with us—rich in mercy and forgiveness, generous in grace. But what about the other—the enemy, the sinner, the heretic, the outsider? Well, we expect God to be as stingy with that person as we are.

Moses and Joshua wanted such a cozy world, too. They wondered how the spirit of God could be given to the two who did not show up at the meeting tent—today's church. And the apostles in the Gospel complained because there were some miracle workers who were clearly not followers of Jesus. God's great free-wheeling generosity confounded them all. Let this be, says Jesus. Just see to it that you who lead continue to be worthy of your calling. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

GOD'S WORD TODAY

Today's Gospel presents us with a scene that is echoed time and time again in our society. From an early age, most of us have been encouraged to be first—first in line, first in the class, first to be picked for the team. This encouragement continues throughout our lives. Being first is fundamentally about power. There is absolutely nothing wrong with being first. The problems set in when we use the power of being first to manipulate and use the people we consider somehow "beneath" us. So many problems of our world and church revolve around this kind of abuse of power. Let us pray that today's Gospel, which addresses these issues head on, will inspire all to use their power in ways that build up rather than tear down and destroy.

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD

Focus on God's agenda, not your own. This message could be the link between the reading from the book of Numbers and the Gospel. When Joshua gets upset at the two men who are suddenly prophesying and wants Moses to stop them, Moses asks, "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the people . . . were prophets!" (Numbers 11:29). And Jesus responds to his disciple John, also upset that someone outside their group was casting out demons in Jesus' name, that "whoever is not against us is for us" (Mark 9:40).

Both Jesus and Moses recognized that God's spirit blows where it will. It sometimes ends up in the strangest places, working through very unexpected people. At the same time, no one can presume that the Spirit will always be working through a particular group or the proper channels. We must be careful of trying to box in or corral the spirit of God.

Being on the inside is no guarantee. Thus, we get Jesus' hard words about cutting off a hand or a leg or plucking out an eye rather than letting it cause us to sin and be cast into hell. Most say this is hyperbole, Middle Eastern exaggeration. I think Jesus is calling his disciples to look honestly at their lives and face whatever it is that leads them away from God. "Deal with it," he says. We must always watch what we hold, the path we choose to walk, and the vision that guides us.

Those on the inside can lose sight of, lose touch with, and go off the path that takes us to the kingdom. And they can take others with them. What matters is that God's work be done. God will see to it; don't get in the way.

SISTERS OF THE MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD

Join us at Sanguis Christi Spirituality Center, 3522 Utah Street, on Saturday, October 10, 2015 from 10:00 – 3:00 pm as Kathleen Davis probes the question: Who is Divine Wisdom ... Sophia? (Kathleen holds a Master of Art in Pastoral Studies from Aquinas Institute of Theology.) Scripture tells us, "She is the breath of the power of God, and a pure emanation of the glory of the Almighty." (Wis 7:25) How can Wisdom/Sophia inspire us to conceive God in new ways? How can She help us as we strive to grasp the vastness of the Holy? With the help of scripture, history and contemporary theology, we'll endeavor to unlock Her mystery. In coming to understand her, perhaps we can unleash Her in a world hungry for the healing power of Wisdom. The cost is $35.00, lunch provided. Deadline for registration is Wednesday, October 7, 2015. For more information or to register, contact Sr. Carol Orf at 314-560-1028.

STEWARDSHIP: AN ATTITUDE OF GRATITUDE

Most people are aware of the concept of Stewardship – recognizing everything we have is a gift from God, being grateful, developing our gifts and generously sharing with others. Gifts are typically categorized as time, talent and treasure. But how do we practice this in everyday life?

TIME - invest in your prayer life

- Pray to God frequently throughout the day, every day.
- Talk and listen to God.

TALENT – willingness to help others

- Participate in parish ministries and other charitable organizations.
- Accept responsibility for helping others.

TREASURE – generosity with your financial gifts

- Generously return a portion of the money you have been given by God.
- Give cheerfully without expecting anything in return. No gift is too small or insignificant.

Stewardship isn't some exclusive club. We are all stewards. Living stewardship requires a conversion – a change that softens our hearts and makes room for the Holy Spirit to enter.

Living a stewardship lifestyle:

- Takes time – time to pray.
- Is difficult – demands placing God first in all things.
- Means taking risks – detaching ourselves from our time, possessions and money - placing our trust in God.

You are invited to follow this path!

And invite one other person – JUST ONE – to do the same!

Stewardship requires action. The action of past generations is what built the Church. It is our responsibility to develop and nurture our gifts for future generations. As St. Francis of Assisi said, "Preach the Gospel at all times. Use words when necessary."

Stewardship isn't easy, but it has tremendous rewards - Love, Peace and Joy on earth and eternal life in heaven!

Question: When you stand before God and He asks what you have done with the gifts He has given you, how will you respond?

SHELTER NEEDS

Peter and Paul Community Services (PPCS) operate a men's shelter in the basement of our Church for seventy men, 365 days per year. You can only imagine how hard it is to have enough supplies on a daily basis. For the month of OCTOBER, we are collecting MEN'S DEODORANT for the shelter guests. Please drop your donations in blue plastic tubs at church when you attend Mass. By targeting an individual item each month, we will be able to donate the items that are short in their supplies. Thank you for your generous support of this project. If you have any questions, please contact Jan Meyer through the parish office number 314-231-9923.
